

Programme

- 9.15 Coffee and registration
- 9.45 Welcome, EIS Perspective and Introduction
Susan Quinn EIS President
- 10.00 Dr John McKendrick:
Co-author- 'Poverty in Scotland 2011'
- 10.45 Coffee break
- 11.10 Seminars
- 12 noon Lunch
- 1.00 Aileen Campbell MSP, Minister for Children and Young People
- 1.20 East Ayrshire Music Service
- 1.35 Anne Marie Carrie: Barnardos
- 2.20 UNICEF - Seen and Heard
- 2.30 Seminars
- 3.15 Panel discussion
- 3.45 Closing remarks and vote of thanks, Larry Flanagan General Secretary

Morning Seminars

- Child Poverty Action Group
Child Poverty and its impact on education
- Reid Foundation
Poverty is a choice
- Dr Stephen McKinney
Initial positive school leaver destinations in Glasgow secondary schools in areas of deprivation
- Close the Gap
The disproportionate effect of poverty on women and girls
- The Scottish Refugee Council
'Trapped – Destitution and Asylum in Scotland'
- Scottish Poverty Information Unit
Welfare reform: the implications for disabled people
- Citizens Advice Scotland
The impact of Welfare changes on Scotland's young people
- Children in Scotland
The impact of poverty and deprivation on children's learning. Can schools make a difference?
- National Union of Students
'Unlocking Scotland's Potential: Promoting Fairer Access to Higher Education'
- Poverty Alliance
Rural poverty

Afternoon Seminars

- James Watt College
Credit Unions
- East Ayrshire Council
The Greenmill String Orchestra Project
- Comenius Project
Supporting Newly Arrived children into education
- St Kentigern's Academy
Rights, Respecting Schools
- Wester Hailes Education Centre
International Project
- Westquarter Primary School, Falkirk
Nurture: not a notion but a necessity
- Smithycroft Secondary School
Young Parents Support Base
Supporting young mums to stay in education
- Dunfermline High School
An inclusive and collaborative approach for young people in conjunction with Apex Scotland
- Falkirk Council Locality Model
Tackling disadvantage and inequality and, as a consequence, improving education and life chances of children and young people
- Castlemilk High School
Leaver destinations